

Small Group Questions

Kicking Things Off

1. In what area of your life are you most often tempted to be self-centered?
2. Who do you know that is characterized by an others-centered life? What are some examples of their others-centeredness?

Getting Into It

3. Read Deuteronomy 22:13-21.

What is the penalty for a husband who falsely accuses his wife?

What is the penalty for a wife who is guilty?

Is this a double-standard? Why or why not?

4. Read Deuteronomy 22:22-29

Do these laws provide equal protection/punishment for men and women? Explain your answer.

How would you feel if you were the woman described in verses 28-29?

In what sense is the woman protected in these verses?

5. Read Deuteronomy 23:1-8.

Who is not allowed in the assembly of the LORD and why?

6. Read the following verses: (a) decide if it is applicable for us today, and (b) if so, write down an example of how it is to be applied today.

23:15-16

23:17-18

23:19-20

(over)

23:21-23

On the Edge of the Promised Land - A Study in Deuteronomy

Your Brother's Ox

Pastor Brandon Cash..... Deuteronomy 22: 5/18/08

23:24-25

As God's People We're to be Others-Centered, not Self-Centered.

Self-Centered people ignore opportunities to help;

Others-Centered people help out - even when it isn't convenient.

Group Prayer Requests

Self-Centered people don't consider their impact on the future;

Others-Centered people consider their impact on the future.

Self-Centered people take risky short cuts;

Others-Centered people go the extra mile for others.