OCF Small Groups: passionately pursuing God, healthy relationships with each other, and people who don't know Jesus, as part of a Gospel Community.

You are Sent

(Sunday March 24)

1.	Is there anyone you deeply respect who you didn't think much of when you met them? What about them is respectable to you?
2.	John 3:16 states "For God so loved the world that he gave his only son" rather than "sent his only son." What is the significance of the word "gave" in this verse?
3.	How would we think about John 20:21 "As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you" if we understood it in light of "gave" in John 3:16?

4.	Acts 13:47 quotes Isaiah 49 "I have made you a light for the Gentiles." Paul and Barnabas take the mission of Jesus on themselves to lead the Gentiles to salvation. How does that mission incorporate us in the South Bay?
5.	"And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent?" (Romans 10:14-15) How does knowing that each one of us is "sent" affect how we interact with people in our daily lives?
6.	"And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up." (Galatians 6:9) How does our goodness turn others toward Christ?
	b. How can we encourage one another not to weary of doing good?
the	s Holy Week let us meditate on the life giving death of Jesus. Let us find our assurance in e perfect life he lived which was given up for us. May the goodness and grace of God yell richly in us as we believe that Christ has surely given all for us.
