Acts 4:32-5:11

(Sunday April 7)

1.	When have you felt a true sense of unity (team, work, church etc.)? Tell us about it.
2.	Jesus says the second great commandment is "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." (Mark 12:28, Leviticus 19:18). How does this image of the early church (Acts 4:32-37) demonstrate Jesus' teachings in a palpable way?
	b. What does it tell us about the testimony of the early church in the Acts?
3.	The tale of Ananias and Saphira is uncomfortable for many; what, if any, concerns do you have about this story?
	Why does this story make us uncomfortable?

4.	What could have been the motivation for Ananias and Saphira to lie about their gifts to the church?
	b. Why do you think they faced such severe judgement?
5.	In what areas in our lives are we tempted to be less than honest?
	b. in what area of our lives are we less than honest with other believers?
be Chr	you pray, ask the Lord for unity. As Jesus prayed to the Father in John 17, "that they may one as we are one." Let us be of one mind, having one mind among us which is ours in ist Jesus. Let us not consider worldly things as something that makes us important, but y our love for one another, grow us in your love Lord.
