Acts 21

(Sunday October 13, 2024)

1. Remember a hard time or a difficult decision you've faced in the past. Who did you go to for advice, or who walked with you through the event?
2. What does Acts 21:1-9 tell us about Christian fellowship? What can we learn from Paul about the value of fellowship in the midst of a difficult season?
3. Counting the cost. Since you started following Jesus, what have you been asked to give up to continue following him?
4. If you have given up something significant to follow Jesus, how have people responded to the sacrifice?

5. How does Paul endure all of these things without fear?

b. Read Romans 8:12-16, What is the consequence of following Jesus without fear?

6. How can we support those who are in physical and political danger for following Jesus?

7. What is the blessing in losing something for the sake of following Jesus?
