ACTS 24

(Sunday November 3, 2024)

1. Have you found yourself in a situation where you feared being honest for the sake of keeping the status quo?

b. Why do you think the Jewish leaders brought these accusations against Paul? (Acts 24:5-8)

2. Quid pro quo (this for that) is the basis of many relationships (what can you do for me). We see this in Felix's attitude towards Paul, how does this thinking change the way we think about people?
3. How does approaching a relationship with selfish intentions limit relationships (Acts 24:26)?

b. Can you think about any relationships that you've been a part of where you had more to give than receive initially?

4. How does Paul respond? (acts 24:16)

b. What is required in our relationships to "have a clear conscience before God and man?"

5. Generous relationships require us to love unselfishly. What can we do this week to be people who see others as more valuable than ourselves? (Philippians 2:3)
